| Date: School Board:  |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
|--|----------|-------|----|--------------------|--------------------------|--|--|
| Title of the Evaluation Situation:   |          |       |    | Course:            |                          |  |  |
| OVERALL EVALUATION   | Satisfac | tory  |    | evisionequired | COMMENTS AND SUGGESTIONS |  |  |
| Compliance with Program of Study and the DED:  |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| a. Class of situations   |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| b. Categories of essential knowledge   |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| c. Evaluation criteria   |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| d. Information clarifying the evaluation criteria  |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| e. End-of-course outcomes  |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| f. Goal and orientations of the course   |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| g. Duration  |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| 2. Administration Procedure:   |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| <ul> <li>a. Appropriate real-life situation, related to adult learners'interests or preoccupations</li> </ul> |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| <ul> <li>b. Problem, guiding question or expected productionclearly defined</li> </ul>                        |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| c. Each section/task is related to the real-life situation   |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| d. Instructions are clearly stated and easy to follow  |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| Expectations for the tasks/productions are clearly stated and well defined   |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| f. Sufficient time allotted for each section/task  |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
| Visual Aspect (layout, illustrations and graphics, sufficient space for the answers, etc.)                         |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |
|  | Easy     | Avera | ge | Difficult          |                          |  |  |
| 4. Difficulty Level (tasks, texts, vocabulary, etc.)   |          |       |    |                    |                          |  |  |

| OVERALL EVALUATION  | Satisfactory | Revision required | COMMENTS AND SUGGESTIONS |
|---|--------------|-------------------|--------------------------|
| <ol> <li>Quality of audio and/or video materials (content, sound,music, images, clarity, diversity, absence of discriminatoryelements)</li> </ol> |              |                   |                          |
| 6. Copyright  |              |                   |                          |
| a. Sources clearly indicated (texts, images, videos, maps, graphics, etc.)      b. Rights obtained or verified (Copibec, Creative                           |              |                   |                          |
| Commons, Public Domain, etc.)  7. Materials conform with the DEDs (required, authorized, unauthorized, etc.)  |              |                   |                          |
| Presence of all required documents (Guide, Booklets, Correction Keys, etc.)   |              |                   |                          |
| Evaluation Tools  | Satisfactory | Revision required | COMMENTS AND SUGGESTIONS |
| 9. Quality and pertinence of evaluation tools:  |              |                   |                          |
| a. Practical and easy to use  |              |                   |                          |
| Information allows for a judgment to be made about the competency being evaluated   |              |                   |                          |
| <ul> <li>c. Expectations for the tasks are translated intoobservable behaviors in the evaluation rubric</li> </ul>                                     |              |                   |                          |
| d. Observable behaviours are directly related to evaluation criteria  |              |                   |                          |
| e. Clear differentiation between performance levels in evaluation rubrics   |              |                   |                          |
| f. Other evaluation tools (Correction Key, Observation Checklist, etc.) are related to the tasks and the expected answers                                   |              |                   |                          |
| g. Weighting of criteria respected  |              |                   |                          |